Thanks--

Please send us availability dates you have so that we can schedule a time for our Team to meet with your families. I have copied our Principal, Harris Luu, who is eager to meet the parents.

This week--either Thursday or Friday or Saturday--would be good options. If not, send me times for next week.

Thanks!

Good Afternoon,

Reaching out again - to see when we can connect. We have shared with parents about Scholarship Prep and most are very interested. I would love to connect ASAP so we can help our parents make the transition. Thank you so much.

Thanks, Chris, for connecting us!!

Sakshi—Chris has provided me background information on your potential need to delay opening this fall

I would love to speak with you to give you information about Scholarship Prep and our new school in the South Bay with a Wilmington home site. We have Enrollment openings available and would love to serve the Families who reached out to you seeking high quality educational opportunities. We are finalizing our school repairs and will be opening on August 19th as planned.

Please call me at (213) 453-6614 or via this email so we can meet to talk soon. I'm in Las Vegas for the national conference but flying home tomorrow. I am copying my CAO, Andrew Crowe, who I believe you know.

Many thanks!

Hi Sakshi,

I am connecting you here with Gloria Romero, the Executive Director of Scholarship Prep, which is starting up next year with a focus on the Harbor area. Per our conversation, Scholarship Prep still has room to enroll new students, and could be a great landing place for some of your kids, if they end up looking for a new school.

Gloria, Sakshi Jain is the incredible leader of GANAS Academy, which was authorized in 2018 at LAUSD to operate in the Wilmington/Harbor area. The school may be taking an additional year to plan, but Sakshi already has a small group of students enrolled.

I will let you two take it from here.

Best,
